

RESOURCES TO TEACH FEMINISM

Primary Leap

You can use these worksheets to teach your students about famous women in history.

<https://primaryleap.co.uk/worksheets/?s=women>

TeacherVision

In this webpage you will find several resources for your students related with the idea of women personalities, feminism and women's rights.

https://www.teachervision.com
/search/women

International Women's Day web

You can find some resources to teach feminism or foster a positive attitude towards the movement. In the following link you will find different tools to work with, but you must be careful and select the most appropriate according to the age of your pupils.

<https://www.internationalwomensday.com/School-Resources>

Twinkle

In Twinkle you will find more than fifty different resources for all age, even for kids, to work with concepts surrounding the notion of feminism and sexism.

Type in their search engine words such as: feminism, women, women's rights, gender equality. You can use filters to select the age range you would like the activities for, the language or type of resource.

<https://www.twinkl.gr/>

National Geographic Kids

National Geographic for kids offers three resources with which your students can learn about the history of women or women in the contemporary world. These resources also redirect to other brief articles about women.

https://www.natgeokids.com/uk/?s=women&post_type=

Time to learn!

