

The Ball

- Form a cycle with your students.
- Each student throws the ball to another student and asks a silly question, like e.g. “Why is the snow white?”, “Why do dogs have short legs?”.
- The student who catches the ball needs to give an answer and then ask a new question when he throws the ball to someone else.

